

Purpose: Character Trait

Title: Uncle Jed's Barbershop

Characters?

Uncle Jed
Sarah
People (neighbors)

Setting?

In the South
Country setting
Past

Beginning

Caring

Ending

Caring

List the EVENTS on the back.

Events

1. Uncle Jed pays $300 for Sarah's operation.
2. Uncle Jed goes to people's houses and cuts their hair.
3. He still cuts people's hair even though they don't have any money.

Student's paragraph:

Uncle Jed is a caring person because he cares for a lot of people. Uncle Jed goes to people's houses and cuts their hair. He pays $300 for Sarah's operation because Sarah is ailing. Uncle Jed still cuts people's hair even though they don't have any money. They give anything to him that they have like a hot meal, eggs, and vegetables from their gardens.

Missing a Concluding Sentence

Original graphic organizer – used in 2001-2002.

Now using Story Map

continued: exemplar of character analysis
(most important trait)

Character Analysis

step two:
writing a paragraph

Character

Uncle Jed

Main Trait

caring

Evidence (Events)

1. he payed $300 for Sarah's operation
2. he went to people's houses and cut their hair
3. he still cuts people's hair even though they don't have any money
- 4.
- 5.

Name: _____

Written using graphic organizer on previous page.

Uncle Ted's Barber Shop

Uncle Ted is a caring person because he cares for a lot of people. Uncle Ted goes to people's houses and cuts their hair. He pays $300 for Sarah's operation because Sarah is ailing. Uncle Ted still cuts people's hair even though they don't have any money. They give anything to him that they have like a hot meal, eggs, and vegetables from their gardens.

Missing Concluding Sentence

1-paragraph
Character Analysis
(most important trait)